All Sonoma County Farm Bureau members are entitled to two free classified ads and complimentary job postings in the Sonoma-Marin Farm News.

In addition to following Sonoma County Farm Bureau's general advertising guidelines, classifieds must also meet the following standards. Classifieds are for individual use only - businesses should refer to Sonoma County Farm Bureau's Advertising Rates sheet. Classifieds may not advertise for any alcohol, tobacco or cannabis products. Examples of appropriate classifieds include (but are not limited to) individual pieces of equipment for sale, animals for sale or lease, individuals seeking or offering services, lost and found ads and job postings. Classifieds will be placed at the discretion of the Sonoma-Marin Farm News Editor and Executive Director.

Individuals seeking more than two classifieds may purchase an additional classified for $15 plus $8/line. Each line includes 30 characters.
